

Application Form to the Archdiocese Social Justice Commission

The Social Justice Office of the Archdiocese of Regina is looking for applicants to gather, discuss, and create meaningful resources to help the people of the Archdiocese to live out Catholic values relating to justice, and the social teaching of the Catholic Church.

We would be a commission of approximately 15 people committing to meeting 6-8 times a year. Our goals are to assess justice issues that the Archdiocese should address, empower the laity to live out their Baptismal vocation of Prophet through education, and to serve as two-way communication tool for the Archdiocese and the People of God. If you are interested in participating for a one, two or three-year term on this commission please fill out the following form and return it to Tashia Toupin Social Justice Coordinator by Friday, May 10th.
