TF121: Signs, Miracles, and Wonders - Part 2

The adventure continues with Michelle Braden as she continues to regale and inspire us with yet more stories of the unusual, the inexplicable, the inspirational 'God-incidences' she's encountered in life and ministry. Can there be a better start to the New Year than with signs, miracles, wonders... and Thinking Faith!?

Prayer service for Healing from Clergy Sexual Abuse

The Light Shines Through the Broken Places

Everyone is welcome to join Archbishop Don to come together for a Prayer Service for Healing from Clergy Sexual Abuse. The Light Shines Through the Broken Places is a reminder that although victims are often broken the light of Christ may shine through their brokenness. The service will encourage us to find the courage to listen deeply and compassionately to those who were wounded in a place where they should have found love.

Sunday January 20, 2019 7:00 p.m. at St. Cecilia's Parish – Regina.

The Archdiocese is looking for two to three volunteers to help develop a refugee sponsorship program resource. The time commitment is one month, hopefully mid Jan. to mid Feb. 40-50 hours (flexible, but might include evenings and weekends). You would be asked to interview, write, and edit a comprehensive document to help parishes and community groups discern and understand the refugee sponsorship process.

If you have excellent writing, critical thinking and organizational skills and an interest in this area please think about applying. A knowledge of refugee sponsorship is not a requirement. For more information contact Tashia Toupin (306) 352-1651 or ttoupin@archregina.sk.ca.

Bi-Annual Western Canadian Catholic Stewardship Conference

If your parish has a stewardship committee or someone interested in promoting good stewardship please contact me. Depending on the number of registrants, there may be some financial assistance available to cover the cost of registration [$235.00 by Feb.1st; $260.00 after Feb.1st.] The conference has always been a wonderful source of new ideas for building parish community through the philosophy and spirituality of stewardship and gratitude. For further information contact me; Fr. John Weckend, Diocesan Stewardship Committee chairperson, St Cecilia's parish, contact@stcecregina.com; 306-545-4051 or jweckend@accesscomm.ca.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"John answered them all, 'I baptize you with water; but he who is mightier than I is coming...he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit...'" (Luke 3:16)

The Catholic Catechism states that "Jesus' immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God's will." In other words, as baptized Catholics there is only one gift that we need to give to Jesus – the gift of ourselves. Surrender yourself to God, place your trust in Him and allow the Holy Spirit to work through you for the greater glory of God.
