TF139: Religion And Violence Part 2

Eric and Brett continue their discussion on religion and violence. We attempt to pull back our presuppositions and take an honest look at how our current cultural perspective, which promises a lasting peace among all persons divorced from any religious influence, and ask if this is the solution or just a hidden part of the problem, this week on Thinking Faith!

Variety Night - Variety Night is an initiative of the Archdiocese of Regina Youth office each year to raise funds for worthy causes. This year's theme is Time Travelers and is an epic evening of music, (complete with a 15 piece band) dance, drama and plenty of laughter. The cost of tickets is $15. Snacks are sold separately. CLARIFICATION: This year the doors and concession stand will open at 5:30 and in addition to the usual dessert and salty snacks for $4, you also be able to purchase a plate of smokies, cabbage rolls, perogies and a bun from the concession stand for $13. The concession stand will accept cash, cheques or credit card. It is however, NOT a buffet supper and there will be no "supper tickets" sold in advance. To purchase tickets to the show please call 306 540 6321 or visit Resurrection Parish office.

There are 4 requests for the Saint Pio relic tour:

1. Pray for the relic tour and the local events;
2. Plan to attend one of the local events where the relics will be present, and invite and encourage others to attend;
3. Volunteer to help, or to provide food for the volunteers, at the local events; and
4. Provide financial support for the local events.

For more information about how to engage further on any of these four areas, please contact communications@archregina.sk.ca. You can share the event on social media from our Facebook and Instagram pages.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34)

It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes strength and courage to love someone when we feel unappreciated, used or feel our opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage to "love my neighbor" when he may be someone I don't like, someone I don't know or someone that doesn't look like me.

The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program Mission-Discipleship-Service-Faith

"I see how graduates from the program have become more involved in the life of the parish: be it on pastoral council or one of the committees such as liturgy or social justice, etc. I have witnessed their faith grow from before they entered to the time of their graduation and how they become more in tune with their faith. In many ways you can see how they have fallen in love with the Lord and with his Church." - Fr. Stephen Bill, Christ the King, Regina.

One weekend per month from October until June, Catholics who want to know, love and serve Christ more deeply come together at Campion College in Regina. Are you ready to fall more deeply in love with Jesus Christ and his Church? We are currently accepting applications for the Fall intake of this three-year program. For more information or to register, please contact our Program Coordinator, Eric Gurash at 306-352-1651 ext 211 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca
