They'll look at the examples of rest and Sabbath that Jesus gives in the Gospels, talk possible patron Saints of rest...and try to catch a few, restful Zzz's, this week on Thinking Faith!<http://thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/tf155-taking-it-easy-catholic-style-with-guest-host-ryan-leblanc-part-2>

The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program

"I'd love to take the course, but I want to wait until; my kids are grown, I can slow down at work, I'm retired..." The sad truth is, nearly 75% of young people, even those raised in religious homes, will leave the Church by the time they are 25 - well before many of us retire! Some of the most common reasons given for leaving one's faith behind include; perceived conflicts between faith and science, Christians behaving badly, a lack of evidence for the existence of God and difficulties with some of the Church's teachings. Our sons and daughters need mentors who are "well-trained and animated by a sincere faith...whose life has been touched by the personal and merciful love of Jesus Christ" (Pope Francis). We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information or to register, please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-352-1651 ext. 211 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

*"Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."
(Luke 14:33)*

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.
