

Archdiocese of Regina

APPLICATION

The Responsible Parish Ministry Coordinator is appointed by the Archbishop and is accountable to the Archbishop for the application of this manual.

The manual is intended to inform clergy, employees and volunteers about their obligations under civil, canonical, archdiocesan, and other appropriate standards of conduct and to insure that they comply with such standards. Procedures and personnel are in place to deal, in a timely fashion, with any complaints of misconduct that may arise.

Nothing in this manual and the procedures, or their application, is intended to discourage or prevent anyone from seeking legal or ecclesiastical remedies.

This manual reflects the existing law of the Province of Saskatchewan and of Canada. The guidelines are in all respects subject to the laws of the Province of Saskatchewan and Canada and the Code of Canon Law, including the inviolability of the sacramental seal.
