

Jesuit “Come and See” Parish Announcement

Peace of Christ! My name is Bryan Manning, and I am a Jesuit seminarian based in Regina. I would like to share some information about an upcoming Jesuit event that will be taking place here in Regina. It is called a “Come & See”.

“Come and See” events are hosted by Jesuit communities throughout Canada and indeed anywhere Jesuits are located. These events offer men the chance to learn about Jesuit history and spirituality, the life of the vows and the Jesuit way of living.

On Saturday, November 1st, the Society of Jesus invites men, ages 18-39 from the Prairie region to come and spend a day with the Jesuit community in Regina, Saskatchewan, to sample the life, spend time in personal prayer, and listen to talks from Jesuit seminarians and formed Jesuits. The day is an opportunity to further their own discernment of a possible Jesuit vocation, with the option of spiritual direction.

If you have any questions, please contact me by email at bmanning@jesuits.org.

Please note, this event takes place on November 1, 2025, in Regina, and it is an all day and early evening event.

God bless and thank you for your time.

Bryan K. Manning, SJ
