First Sunday of Advent

Archbishop's Appeal

As Advent begins, Isaiah calls us to look forward to the day when nations will stream to the mountain of the Lord in peace and justice. St. Paul reminds us to awaken from spiritual sleep, putting on Christ and living in readiness. In the Gospel, Jesus urges vigilance and preparation, encouraging us to be watchful for His coming. The Annual Appeal is an opportunity to prepare the way of the Lord in our parish, supporting ministries that nourish faith, hope, and charity. Your generosity helps ensure that our parish community is ready to welcome Christ with joyful hearts and open arms.

Thinking Faith S03 E08/E12: Angels, Demons, Purgatory, and do we all worship the same God?

In this episode of Thinking Faith, Deacon Eric and Dr. Brett Salkeld respond to questions from grade 9 and 10 students at Miller Catholic High School. They dive into topics such as the nature of purgatory, offering metaphors and practical examples to help understand the process of purification. They explain how angels, including fallen angels, fit into Christian theology, touching on the distinctions between angels and humans. Finally, they tackle the question of whether Muslims, Christians, and Catholics serve the same God, exploring the nuances and commonalities in beliefs about God across these faiths.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come." Matthew 24:42

People who have had health issues or near-death experiences generally have a greater appreciation for each day being a gift from God. The rest of us usually take for granted that we will be around tomorrow. But when you start to look at each day as a gift, you realize all the little miracles that happen daily and you begin to see God's active presence in your life. You grow in gratitude, each day, for all that we have been given.

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota, and Métis peoples

Miracles of Advent: Light in a Divided World

On Thursday, December 4, at 7:00 pm. Bring a candle and join the Canadian Council of Churches on Zoom for Miracles of Advent: Light in a Divided World. In 45 minutes, you'll hear three short stories your support makes possible, light a candle of hope with friends across traditions, and learn how you can help form young leaders and strengthen ministries serving neighbours in need. Bring a candle! (Or a phone light, if needed.) Register: signup-can.keela.co/miracles-of-advent-light-in-a-divided-world-registration-form-december-4
