Dying To Meet You: Preventing Euthanasia, Encouraging Hope

Why has euthanasia become such a temptation for so many Canadians? How can we create and put forward a more attractive alternative vision? And, what are some concrete ways we can bring hope to our parishes and communities?

On Saturday, May 2nd, come join us at St Martin de Porres Parish in Regina, SK, to hear visiting speaker Amanda Achtman share her experience as she travels across Canada to encourage the conversation surrounding suffering, death, meaning, and hope. Doors open at 5 PM, Dinner is at 6 PM and speaker will be at 7 PM.

About the Speaker

Amanda Achtman was born and raised in Calgary. During high school, she was a two-time winner of the Knights of Columbus Respect for Life speech contest. She worked with an MP on Parliament Hill in an effort to prevent the expansion of euthanasia on the basis of disability and mental illness. Amanda holds graduate degrees in John Paul II Studies from the Catholic University of Lublin, Poland and in Judaic Studies & Jewish-Christian at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome.

To purchase tickets, please phone 306-569-1985 or E-Transfer rpla@sasktel.net with NOTE or DESCRIPTION "2026 GALA TICKETS". There will be a Silent Auction & Cash-Only Bar.
