Archbishop's Appeal

In today's readings, we are reminded of the importance of seeking God's wisdom and remaining ready to welcome Him into our lives. In the Gospel, Jesus shares the parable of the ten bridesmaids, encouraging us to stay watchful and prepared for His coming. The wise bridesmaids brought enough oil for their lamps, showing us the importance of a faith that is nurtured through prayer, trust, and daily commitment.

The first reading tells us that wisdom is available to all who seek her with open hearts. God does not ask for perfection, but for a willingness to remain close to Him and to grow in faith.

St. Paul's words to the Thessalonians offer comfort and hope, reminding us that God's promises bring peace even in times of uncertainty. As we journey through life, may we continue to seek God's wisdom, keep our lamps burning brightly, and share His love with those around us.

Stewardship Bulletin Bits

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." - Matthew 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? Don't delay. None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

Pope's Prayer Intentions: November

For Proper Use of Wealth

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less. popesprayer.va/praywiththepope/
